How far would you go to protect your child from terrorism? How about the nearest phone?

Terrorism kills innocent people in every walk of life. By providing information that prevents a terrorist act, you save lives, protect families, and preserve peace.

The United States offers rewards for information leading to the arrest of persons engaged in terrorism. If you have information that can help, please visit www.RewardsforJustice.net or contact your local law enforcement agency.

Stop a terrorist. Save lives.
